

Dual Credit Handbook

Water Valley ISD

2023-2024

March 2023

Water Valley ISD will be offering Dual Credit courses through Angelo State University (ASU). This handbook gives enrollment details and expectations for Dual Credit students.

In order to take Dual Credit courses, Water Valley ISD requires the following:

- Cumulative GPA of 3.0 or Top 50% of your class
- English II EOC of 4000 or higher/Algebra I EOC of 4000 or higher
- Recommendation from teacher and principal (English teacher for all courses except math, math teacher for math courses)
- Meeting any additional requirements set by the college
- Pass the TSIA2 - ELAR score of at least 945 and an essay score of at least 5 / Algebra score of at least 950

Dual Credit courses are taught by instructors from the college and therefore Water Valley ISD does not have input as to how the courses are taught or how grades are given. It is very easy to get behind in these courses because the instructor normally gives out a syllabus and expects the students to keep up with the coursework with little or no reminders.

Water Valley ISD is able to pay for the costs of both tuition and books for each student during the 2023-2024 school year. In the event that a student does not receive credit for a Dual Credit college course, that student and their parents will be responsible for reimbursing Water Valley ISD for all district costs pertaining to that student's enrollment in the course(s). This includes any fees that may be assessed for dropping a course. Depending on when a student drops a course determines what percent the school will be reimbursed. Students who drop a course may not be eligible for Dual Credit courses the next semester or the following year. All reimbursements must be paid in full PRIOR to enrolling in future Dual Credit courses through Water Valley ISD.
